RECALL NOTICE

Bayer Inc. issues voluntary recall in Canada of specific TINACTIN® spray products due to the presence of benzene

Bayer Inc. is voluntarily recalling six unexpired lots of TINACTIN® spray products in Canada with lot numbers beginning with TN to the consumer level due to the presence of benzene in some samples of the products. Benzene is not an ingredient in any of Bayer Consumer Health products. It is important to note that Bayer's decision to voluntarily recall these products is a precautionary measure and that the levels detected are not expected to cause adverse health consequences in consumers.

Risk Statement: Benzene is classified as a human carcinogen. Exposure to benzene can occur by inhalation, orally and through the skin. Depending on duration and level of exposure, it can result in cancers including leukemia and blood cancer of the bone marrow and blood disorders, which can be life-threatening. Benzene is found in the environment from natural sources and other human activity. Humans around the world are exposed to it from multiple sources and pathways, including inhalation, through the skin, and orally. To date, Bayer has no known reports of adverse events related to this recall.

The affected TINACTIN® spray products are over the counter antifungal products. The impacted products are:
